MA in French Literature

Improve your knowledge of literature, history, movements, and traditions behind some of the greatest literary art known with the MA in French Literature. As you develop the skills to analyze French literature and history, you will be working alongside distinguished and world-renowned experts in the field.

Degree Requirements
Students in the French Literature MA program must complete a minimum of 30 credit hours and an applied project.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Credit Hours</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Core Courses 9</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Required Electives 12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Electives 6</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Culminating Experience 3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Total Semester Hours Required 30</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Required Core Course
FRE 500 Bibliography and Research Methods
FRE 510 Introduction to Textual Analysis
FRE 598 Structure de la langue française

Required Electives
Students are required to take a minimum of four courses offered by the French section selected from the following categories; at least one of the four must be a civilization course.
- Period Courses
- Genre Courses
- Civilization Courses

Supervisory Committee
Each students’ supervisory committee must include at least 3 faculty members from SILC.

Applied Project
Students must complete an applied project (FRE 593) based on their future career endeavors.

Additional Information and Questions
For additional information, please visit silc.asu.edu.